

IRF Young Professionals Programme

Ana Maria DE LA PARRA

Ana Maria is writing her dissertation to obtain her MSC in Social Development Practice at the UCL Development Planning Unit. Her research topic is on the redefinition of Social Justice in Cuba using as entry point a sustainable mobility project in Havana. She has worked for five years supervising road operations with a particular focus on road safety. She has a BA in International Relations from ITAM in Mexico City.
